First Annual Halloween Bash to be Held at City Hall; Event to Feature Petting Zoo, Trick-or-Treating, Games & Thriller Zombie Dance Off

JERSEY CITY – Mayor Steven M. Fulop announced that the City of Jersey City’s First Annual Halloween Bash at City Hall will be held from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. on Thursday, October 31, 2013, in the front plaza of City Hall, 280 Grove Street.

The event, sponsored by the Office of the Mayor, is FREE and open to the public. Parents from all neighborhoods of the city are encouraged to bring their children to City Hall for this community event.

Activities will include the screening of “Fright Night” movies, a petting zoo, trick-or-treating, face painting, a moon bounce, games and activities, a costume contest, and a Michael Jackson’s Thriller Zombie Dance Off.

“We hope everyone will come down to City Hall for what will be a fun event for the entire family,” said Mayor Fulop. “I am looking forward to seeing creative costumes and there will be plenty of candy for the children. We also believe that the petting zoo – which will include camels, cows, lamas and sheep – will thrill both children and parents this Halloween.”
